

Banana Fibre: A Sustainable Alternative Product To Make Currencies In The World

As everyone knows the world is affected by the global warming .so all are expecting the possibilities to change and protect our environment as well as human life ,the main issues in this world is our daily usage products like cloth, tooth brushes, chapel and house hold items are being made by some synthetic materials not only that products but also making all industrial things .now scientists are focus more at the usage of fibre like coir, banana, jute, sisal etc to make the above items through natural resource. This has contributed to the development of extra attention on the use of material based on natural fibres . The Indian currency is being produced by cotton along with some synthetic chemicals. Now a days the fake currencies are made by so many unauthorised persons. It will create a big problem in our society . Banana fibre is a natural fibres finds applications in various fields from agriculture to automotive .here just elaborate about the currency making process and give a suggestion to use and make the eco friendly currency which is low cost and quality by banana fibre. In addition, that can be never made the currency by anybody or any industry. In this research gives suggestion of how to make all country currencies by banana fibre, material resource, process ,cost control, quality ,testing , comparison, usage and recycling .

Keywords: Banana, Eco Friendly, Fibre, Process ,Testing